

Central Institute of Plastics Engineering & Technology, Ahmedabad

Vision and Mission of Manufacturing Engineering Department

Vision of the Department

To build disciplined, socially committed and technically competent Manufacturing engineers with awareness, innovative and managerial skills to design and manufacture innovative cost effective quality products globally.

Mission of the Department

M1. To offer world class Undergraduate by providing quality education in Manufacturing.

M2. Improve the technical quality of the students to meet the challenges, competitions and opportunities in field of Manufacturing.

M3. To upgrade the department-industry/research Centre interaction by means of training, internship and student projects to solve industrial problems.

M4. To create technically sound human resource for building ethically & morally elevated society.

M5. To innovate the Product Design aspects and to enable the students to be a design and developer in the field of Manufacturing.