DEPARTMENT OF
CHEMICALS &
PETRO-CHEMICALS

Honouring Innovation in the Petrochemicals Sector

Inviting nominations for the 1st Petrochemicals Research and Innovation Commendation

Category I: Research and Innovation in Polymers

- Innovation in polymeric materials and products
- Innovation in green polymeric materials and products
- Innovation in packaging techniques including creative design
- Innovation in polymer processing machinery, equipment, robotics and automation
- Innovation in polymer waste management
- Petrochemicals and new polymer applications
- Research in the field of polymer science & technology (for research students)
- Innovative "Start-up" venture in the polymer field

Category II: Application of Polymers in Various Fields

- Polymers in agriculture and water conservation
- Polymers in medical and pharmaceutical applications
- Polymers in other fields

Life Journey of a CIPET-ian: Success story

I introduce myself, I am Anurag Kumar from 1998 passed out from CIPET, Patna which is now called as CIPET Hajipur. At present, I am almost 48 years and own a Proprietorship company having exclusive rights of some renowned masterbatch manufacturing and also working as Techno commercial person in Plastic processing every type of segment. I am also doing work in hot runner systems and moulds.

I got admission in CIPET, Patna in 1996. I passed out in 1998 and got opportunity in a plastic injection molding unit in Gurgaon. Then I worked for one year there as shift engineer with a salary of Rs. 3,500/month.

After one year I got opportunity from a South Korean hot runner system Yudo hot runner system. Gradually, I started generating good volume of business at south Korea and closely associated with LG, Samsung and other OEMs and their vendors. Then after I worked with German company as technical sales head for three years. I travelled almost half of the world till 2012.

I am just sharing this journey to tell all my CIPET students Alumni or present students to request them that CIPET is a great skill enhancement institute and if you take the training and learn from institute no doubt about your success.

I would like to thanks to all my teachers, councilor, colleagues and seniors in -. It's really great that CIPET selected me to describe my professional as well as personal journey during CIPET and also after CIPET my success journey till the time now.
